PUBLIC SAFETY SCHOLARSHIP

The Beech Grove Professional Firefighter's Association is proud to present the Public Safety Scholarship.

The Scholarships are made possible through the dedication and hard-work of the Beech Grove Professional Firefighters and through generosity donations, which is intended to financially assist any student who lives in the City of Beech Grove and wishes to pursue a college education in the field of Public Safety, Medical, or Public Service.

There are two Scholarships available in the amount of $500.00. Application Process will start July 1st, 2009 and end by September 1st, 2009 with announcement by Mid September 2009. Applicants should fill out application, along with a narrative stating your goals for the future. After the selection process is completed, the funds will be paid directly to the college or university the recipient is attending.
