August was an exciting month for us. We put out our first ever, all color, eight-page Newsletter! That`s right! The first edition of Elton H. Geshwiler Senior Center /The insider newsletter. Now we can give more information about our events. We can also order enough newsletters to put in Stores, Dentist offices, restaurants, any place that will allow us to put them with their newspapers and magazine. Everyone has the option to have it sent monthly by email, which gives the Seniors and others a better chance of getting our calendar. Now there are no restricted days or hours to get our newsletter. We are reaching more people and we are saving money on printing paper, ink, and don`t forget printing three times more than we ever have. And the best part is, It`s free to us! How??? Well, it`s paid for by businesses in and around our area that is willing to put their advertisement in our newsletter. How can you not be excited, right? And what`s even more exciting, after we gave the Community center the information, they contacted LPI, and they too will receive this cost saving gift.

We took in a lunch and show at Beef & Boards, which is always a hit. We went to the city market downtown as well as the Indiana State House market. We also went downtown to The Boiling Seafood. We spent the day out at the Indiana state fair this year, we haven`t done that in years. We went to Harrah`s Hoosier Park casino, we also decided to have a Fashion show here at the center. We invited a two of Beech Grove`s business owners and four of our city workers along with a few seniors to be our fashion models for this event, they showed us the new fall fashion line just intime for our upcoming trip.
